The Kindy students begin each day with exercise—a specific program called Brian Gym. After exercise, the students engage in a literacy block program where they link reading and writing strategies together. Below the students eagerly show their achievements in writing and participate actively in our Jolly Phonics program. Our students at St Patrick’s continue to “Do All Things Well.” Congratulations!