The Pencil is Mightier than the Sword

This week I visited the brilliant Year One students. During my visit the students were very keen to show me their achievements in writing an information report on butterflies. The students through their report were very confident in reading, showing their skills and abilities to understand that written words provide meaning and information regarding the life-cycle of the butterfly.

Well done Year One!