The Spirit of our School - Welcoming to all

This week our students were actively engaging in a number of exciting activities that included students in the computer lab upskilling their technology skills, students using laptops in the library, preparations for Book week with a huge book sale, students celebrating achievements in Eisteddfods or singing and verse speaking, students learning about their local community and students representing our school at state levels for athletics. Now that is the spirit of learning!