FILMS V’s BOOKS

This term Year Six are working on a Film Study. Some of the things we have been looking at so far are the purpose of film posters to persuade audiences, writing and presenting speeches about our favourite movies, discussing camera shots film makers choose to use and reading books that have been made into films.

We have loved reading books made into films as some of the greatest films ever made started as great books.

Here are some of our favourites!