What’s the time Mr Wolf?

Forget “What’s the time Mr Wolf?” Year One students are well ahead of clever Mr Wolf.

The students in Year One are exploring all the elements of numeracy by using measurement to operate clocks, interpret calendars and timetables. As our students explored the measurement of time, it was exciting to see them engage their critical and creative thinking skills by identifying and clarifying data information about clocks clearly and accurately. Well done Year One!