Successful Socktober

Here at St Patrick’s our School Captains organised a successful fundraising event.

All children on Friday 25th of October wore crazy socks to school.

This was to recognise even socks are a simple need children do not have in Mongolia in -40 degree temperatures.

We were able to raise $526.

Well done St Pat’s!