Another day in paradise.

This week our Year Six students explored the new interactive touch screen that will go in the library, students shared their achievements, students receiving their awards, Ms O’Connor nominated for MJR award at assembly, Kindergarten students reading to the principal in his office, parents enjoying cake and coffee as part of our volunteer afternoon tea, student teachers farewell and a yummy BBQ by the boys, was a wonderful way to conclude another busy week. - Mr A-J